"A ROMANOV SURVIVES"

The Russian Revolution of 1917 began with the ransacking of the Czar's palace in St. Petersburg and the destruction of the Czar's family — the Romanov's family. However, rumor has it that one of Czar Nicholas' and Czarina Alexandra's children, an eight year old girl named Anastasia, escaped unharmed.

Ten years later, an orphaned eighteen year old girl, named Anya, with no memories of her childhood, is discovered by a con artist named D'mitri, who tries to make money by claiming she is the lost Anastasia.

The only clue that she has that she "must have been someone that someone loved", is a key she has always worn around her neck that is engraved with the inscription, "Together in Paris". Although she doesn't know it, the key fits a music box given to her by her grandmother, the Dowager Empress, Marie!

With D'mitri "coaching" her in the ways of the Romanov family, Anya's memory slowly returns — and it is finally proven that she really is the lost Anastasia — and she is reunited with her grandmother!

But an evil man named Rasputin, who helped bring down the Romanov family with his black magic, discovers that Anastasia is alive and well — and seeks to kill the one remaining Romanov!

"DEFEAT RASPUTIN"

You always play as eighteen-year old Anya (Anastasia). You are seeking to find out who you really are — to find your real home and family and the love you feel you have lost. Once you realize who you really are, you want to understand your true identity better as well as to understand your true feelings about D'mitri!

You always play through all 4 stages. Each stage has a time limit. Try to do as much as you can in each stage. You WIN the game if you can kick Rasputin enough times in the final stage. Then you will see the "game winning" animation of Anastasia in D'mitri's arms! If you don't kick Rasputin often enough in the final stage, you will not win the game and will not see the game winning animation. Instead Rasputin will appear with Bartok and they will laugh at you!

Each stage tells a part of your unique story for survival:

STAGE 1: THE TRAIN TO PARIS

You are on a train to Paris with D'mitri, who is going to get you in to see the Dowager Empress, who is really your grandmother! As the game begins, the mysterious Rasputin appears. You cannot fight him at first and he will not attack you right away. Instead, he quickly disappears and in his place, he sends out his Minions! Move around the train or climb on the train's roof to avoid the Minions! But climb down quickly from the roof so you don't get hit by a tunnel! Also climb down fast if a Minion reaches up for you! If you get caught by a Minion, you lose energy. The Minions can also grab your amulet. Your amulet is important. It holds your special key! When you lose your amulet, grab it back when it appears! Stay out of the way of Bartok, Rasputin's pet bat! And rescue your own pet, Pooka, when he appears!

STAGE 2: THE EVIL DREAM

Rasputin has incredible magical powers. When his Minions didn't succeed in destroying you on the train, he transports you into a dream. In the dream, lovely butterflies swirl around your head. You are lured onto the deck of a ship where the Minions attack you from all directions! When Rasputin appears, kick him — and kick him hard! Remember, you're a fighter with a will to win! At the end of the stage, grab D'mitri's hand and he'll pull you out of the dream!

STAGE 3: THE LURE

You arrive in Paris and your adventure continues. Your grandmother is attending the "Ballet Ruse", a famous opera. The level begins with dancers dancing on stage. Rasputin appears and casts an evil spell, transforming the dancers into his Minions who attack you! Be sure to pick up your key when it appears! Move quickly to insert the key into a music box that appears. Insert the key as often as you can!

STAGE 4: FIGHT FOR VICTORY

Move across the many bridges of Paris with the Minions and Rasputin in hot pursuit. When you think you are going to fall off a bridge, grab D'mitri's hand! In this final stage, you will have a final epic battle with Rasputin. If you manage to kick him enough times, you will WIN the game!
